

PRIZES AND AWARDS

Each year, the generosity of individuals and firms from the community allows the Festival to offer awards, trophies and plaques for merit on the recommendation of the adjudicators. To ensure eligibility for prizes and awards, competitors should refer to the rules and regulations in their specific discipline. The Awards Committee reserves the right to withhold presentation of any award, if, in the opinion of the adjudicators, a sufficiently high standard of performance has not been achieved or if there are no competitors meeting the criteria of the specific award.

MAJOR TROPHIES & AWARDS

The following awards are selected by the adjudicators based on performances at the final concert in each age group. The major awards are generated from the interest of their respective trust funds.

SENIOR STAR AWARDS

FOUNDERS' TROPHY

On the 20th anniversary of the New Brunswick Competitive Festival of Music, as a tribute to its founders, a trophy known as the Founders' Trophy was presented by the President, D.M. Wathen, for annual presentation to the Star of the Festival at the close of the Founders' Night Concert. A Keeper Trophy remains in the permanent possession of the STAR. The winner is not eligible to be named STAR more than TWICE.

This concert is held on the final evening and presents, in competition, the outstanding performers of the entire week, who will be judged by the team of adjudicators. The individual chosen as the most outstanding performer, the Star of the Festival, will receive the Founders' Trophy and a cash award. The runner-up will also receive a cash award.

The choice of Founders' Night competitors is the decision of the adjudicators. To qualify, an individual must have participated in a minimum of three classes, one of which must be Sight Reading.

SMITH-MACLAREN MEMORIAL AWARDS

Rothesay resident and long-time supporter of the Festival, Aileen (Smith) MacLaren, bequeathed the Festival a significant contribution to be used on an annual basis to fund the Smith-MacLaren prize. Previously a $500 cross-discipline prize, in 2013, the Board of Directors established the Smith-MacLaren Memorial Awards to be awarded to the top three senior competitors in the Founders' Night Concert.

INTERMEDIATE STAR AWARDS

CITIZENS FOR FORT LATOUR DUMONTS-CHAMPLAIN EXPEDITION TROPHY

This trophy was presented by the Citizens for Fort LaTour to observe the arrival of the Dumonts and Champlain expedition of June 24, 1604. The trophy, which marks the 400th anniversary of that event, will be given to the Intermediate Star of the Festival.

NBTEL/BELL ALIANT TRUST INTERMEDIATE STAR AWARDS

A long-time supporter of the Music Festival, the NBTel/Bell Aliant Trust Fund supports the winner and runners-up of the Intermediate category, ages 14-17. These awards are presented at the Founders' Night Concert to the top three performers based on their performances at the concert.

DR. JOYCE LUMB JUNIOR STAR PLAQUE

The plaque for the Junior Star is awarded to an individual competitor who is 14 years of age or under, and who has competed in at least two classes in his or her age group plus Sight Reading, where applicable. Eligibility to perform for Junior Star will be on the approval of the adjudicators. Sonatina classes will be considered in the average. Pieces up to and including Grade 6 are eligible for the Jr. Concert.

The winner of the plaque will be decided by the Adjudicators, based on Festival participation and on performance at the Junior Concert. The winner is not eligible to be named STAR more than twice.

APRIL MILLS MEMORIAL AWARDS

In memory of April Mills, a founding member of the Friends of Music, elementary teacher and the convenor and founder of the Junior Concert, cash awards will be presented to the top three performers based on their performances at the April Mills Junior Concert.

ENSEMBLE STAR AWARDS

A.C. JESSIE AND AGNES GLENNIE MEMORIAL PLAQUE

The A.C. Jessie and Agnes Glennie Memorial Plaque, as well as a cash award, will be presented to the most outstanding ensemble of two or more members. Ensembles will be selected by the adjudicators to perform in the Founders' Night Concert. The winner will be determined by the panel of adjudicators.
